

Sunburst Times, 2nd. Quarter, 2008:

Recently Completed:

- Actor Mario Van Peebles recorded voice over narration for multiple episodes of his new Fall '08 TV show MVP's Greenhouse. (The show explores the topic of green building and eco-friendly living through Mario and his family including his father Melvin Van Peebles and living green proponent Ed Bagley Jr.) The series airs on Equator HD/Voom HD Networks.
- Jazz vocalist Ernie Andrews archival restoration of reel to reel master tapes for release in 2009.
- Composer Paul Hepker (who has worked on many movie and TV scores including the award winning Discovery Channel's Deadliest Catch) recorded live rhythm section tracks for various upcoming nature oriented shows.
- Brazilian Percussionist Andy Potter recorded drum and percussion tracks for his upcoming Latin Jazz album project with singer Edi Machado.
- Telecommunications specialist's Fonality Corporation of Los Angeles recorded outgoing messages for their telephone menu systems.
- Louisiana rock band Sweet Lake Mafia mixed songs - from analog 2"/Dolby SR - for their upcoming album on Every Angle Music, Hermosa Beach, California. The project is produced by Kiehl Owens.

In Production:

- Tim Robbins & David Robbins are tracking their band Gob Roberts for a 2009 release.
- Ricardo Davila, acoustic guitar instructor and sales rep for McCabe's Guitar Shop, is finishing up his first solo CD.

Other News:

- Congratulations to recent Boulevard Music's Variety Night winner Vincent Cash. This open mic sponsorship program from Sunburst donates two hours of Recording time each month. For details contact Boulevard Music in Culver City at 310-398-2583 or at www.boulevardmusic.com.
- Sunburst now stocks 500 gig LaCie Drives and also has added two 500 gig inhouse drives to store client Pro Tools projects.
- We have added a Furman AR-15 AC voltage regulator/filter to protect sensitive computer and other recording equipment.
- Bob Wayne will teach two extension classes in the fall for West LA College and LA City College.
 - The West LA College class is on Saturday October 4th from 11 am to 6 pm. - it is a one day Introduction To Recording class.
 - The LA City College class is a two day class on Microphone Techniques For Voice And Musical Instruments and will be offered on November 8th and 15th from 2pm to 5 pm each day.
 - See the contact information below for registration and more information on both classes:
 - West LA College, 310-287-4475, www.wlac.edu/westside
 - LA City College, 323-669-1031, www.lacitycollege.edu/comsvcs