

Sunburst Times, 7 & 8/2006

Recent Releases:

- The Debbie Allen Dance Academy was here in late July recording piano tracks for a dance / vocal recital. The session was produced by Terrence Lee Jones, Musical Director for The Academy.
- Michelle Featherstone's original composition I'm There Too was on the Lionsgate Film Soundtrack of Peaceful Warrior released this past June in theaters nationwide.

In Production:

- Blues and Jazz singer Barbara Morrison has recently recorded two live in studio album projects. One with a jazz trio headed by pianist Phil Wright and the other with her own touring band. The yet untitled CD's should be finished before the end of the summer and released early next year.
- Lyricist Paul Golubovs and Composer John Sokoloff have teamed up for a second CD. This new recording will be released as an album later this year and-along with their earlier work Unveil Your Love-as a staged musical tentatively titled Save The Poet. The story is about an ardent songwriters attempt to rebuild the shattered worlds of the three other characters in the play..

Other News:

- "Open Mic" sponsorship programs continue with 2 hours of free Sunburst Recording studio time at both Boulevard Music in Culver City and McCabe's Guitar Shop in Santa Monica. See details in the March/April, 2006 Newsletter.
- Bob Wayne will again be teaching his one day Introduction To Recording seminars for Los Angeles City College on 10-14-06 and West L.A. College on 11-11-06 For information and to register, use the contact info. below:
www.lacitycollege.edu/comsvcs
www.wlac.edu/westside