

Sunburst Times, 7 & 8/2007:

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT:

•Sunburst has just added 24 Channels of Dolby SR. Renovation has been completed on this major upgrade to what many in the industry still feel is the ultimate recording format... Dolby SR Analog!!! Reconditioned and wired by Charlie Bolois / Vertigo Recording Services who has worked on pro audio gear for clients such as Van Halen, Babyface, Dweezil Zappa and composer Hans Zimmer, the 24 channels of Dolby SR noise reduction - with eight spare modules - is now ready for your 2" projects. Come by and see what analog warmth coupled with high resolution digital noise floor levels can do for your recordings.

Recently Completed:

•Ron Ovadia from Pacific Communications of Costa Mesa, California produced an advertising jingle for a new pain medication. The take-off on the Creedence/John Fogerty track, "Who'll Stop The Rain" morphed into "Who'll Stop The Pain," was sung by Mark Lennon, lead vocalist from the band Venice.

•All In Vain has mixed and released their debut self titled CD through My Space...

www.myspace.com/allinvainrocks

•Doug MacLeod released, as downloads, two live albums (which were restored and digitized at Sunburst) through itunes, emusic and the website www.dubbheads.com. Both albums, Live in 1991, Vol. 1 and Vol. 2, feature Doug's former band consisting of Doug on Electric Guitar, Lee Spath on Drums, Eric Ajaye or Bobby Tsukumoto on Electric Bass, and Ed Czach, Mike Thompson, or Rich Wenzel on organ/keyboards.

In Production:

•James Deely completing final vocal overdubs and mixing his latest CD "A Harder Road." This project, several years in the making, features organist Kevin Kavanaugh of Southside Johnny And The Asbury Jukes, and is scheduled for release in 2008.

•Wednesday Alexander, founder of Los Angeles based Slim Goody Productions, is working on film scoring and featured songs for two full-length documentary films and one short subject.

Other News:

•Recent studio additions include a rebuilt Otari MTR-12 half-track mixdown recorder, which takes up to 12" reel and runs at 30, 15, and 7.5 IPS.

•Bob Wayne will be teaching his ongoing, one-day seminars: Introduction To Recording for West L.A. College on 10-6-07 and for Los Angeles City College on 10-20-07. For information and registration, use the hyperlinks below::

www.wlac.edu/westside

www.lacitycollege.edu.comsvcs