

Sunburst Times, 9 7 10/2005:

New Releases:

- Composer and pianist Carla Bley - with an 11 piece band - recorded tracks for an upcoming Howard Tate CD project. Produced by Steven Weisberg.
- Composer Paul Buckley tracked a song for The WB Network's "Living With Fran" - a sitcom starring Fran Dresher.
- A 1983 version of "Whip It" by Big Daddy, from their first Rhino Records Album, was recently featured in the Bernie Mac, Ashton Kuser Columbia/Tri-Star release "Guess Who."
- Michelle Featherstone placed another song on national TV with her original composition and rendition of "Go On My Child." The recording was featured twice on NBC's "The Biggest Loser" during September.

Other News:

- The recently completed nine week UCLA Extension Record Production class will be offered again in the Winter Quarter starting in January, 2006. Thanks to all four of our guest speakers who shared their experiences with the Summer Quarter class: Bruce Hanifan (Recording Music For Film and TV), Jerrold Thompson (Record Label A&R), Geoff Schroer (Using Pro Tools), and Wayne Peet (CD Mastering). For information and registration.....

www.uclaextension.edu<http://www.wlac.edu/westside/>