

Sunburst Times, 11 & 12/2005:

New Releases:

- Legendary Jazz Vocalist Ernie Andrews “How About Me” on New York’s High Note Records produced by Huston Person...release date, 1/06.
- Gralin Jerald’s “400 Years” from Behind The World Productions. Longtime Sunburst client in his self-produced debut album...release date, 12/05.
- James Gentry in his third album recorded at Sunburst “Silent Warrior”...release date, 11/05.
- Jennifer A. Rickert’s “The Life In Me” a self-produced project of her original compositions...release date, 10/05.
- From Stargazer Films... Never Gonna Quit, the T.V. Pilot about fictitious heavy metal band Golden Shower was recently completed using Sunburst as a film location.

Other Recordings:

- Howard Tate currently tracking songs for an upcoming CD with producer Steve Weisberg and members of Elvis Costello’s band.
- Doug MacLeod will be recording a follow up to his highly successful 2005 release of “Dub” this coming January.

Other News:

- Holiday Mugs will be available to 2005 clients in late November...Same popular style as last year in a new color...Burgundy.
- Our vintage pair of Neumann KM-84’s were renovated in November by noted microphone experts Steven Paul Audio.
- Bruce Hanifan has reshaped the hammers along with regulating the action on our Kawai Grand Piano.
- Bob Wayne’s UCLA Extension Record Producers class “De-Mystifying The Professional Recording Studio” will resume on January 21, 2006 running for nine Saturday mornings until March 18th.
www.uclaextension.edu
- Bob will also be offering his one day beginners workshops at West L.A. College on March 15th and at L.A. City College on March 1st and 15th.
www.wlac.edu/westside
www.lacitycollege.edu